

Message from M. Jacques CHIRAC, President of the Republic, in the wake of the indonesia earthquake

Santiago, 27 May 2006

With some sadness, I would like to say a few words following the appalling earthquake which occurred earlier in Java and appears to have caused thousands of deaths.

So, for all these victims and their families, I want us simply to take a brief moment to remember them.